O.P.No.32618 OF 2000

Dated this the 7th day of September, 2007

JUDGMENT

Notice to the third respondent has been returned unclaimed. Hence it is declared that notice to the third respondent is duly served. The writ petition is ripe.

2. Heard.

3. The complaint of the petitioner is that respondents 1 and 2 are acting on the basis of certain complaints by the third respondent, while the parties are governed by proceedings before the competent civil court, as evidenced by Ext.P1. In this circumstance, this writ petition is disposed of directing that the parties shall stand governed by the decisions of the civil court and respondents 1 and 2 shall not issue any orders in violation of the decisions of the civil court and shall ensure that no orders are issued contrary to any order or decree passed by the civil court.
